ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No.	Nature of Noncompliance
----------------------	--------------------------------

- | | |
|----|---|
| 1. | The defendant must make restitution to Washington Mutual Bank as detailed in the Judgment and Commitment Order in the amount totaling $121,600.00: |
|----|---|

Mrs. Rask was ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $121,600.00. The Court ordered her to pay quarterly installments of $50.00. Mrs. Rask has maintained employment and has paid her restitution in a continuous manner from this income. This restitution is joint and several with the codefendant Larry Alan Rask. The U.S. Clerk's Office record reflects she has paid a total of $400.00 toward restitution. The remaining balance is $118,763.00.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Terry Rask's two year term of probation began on May 9, 2011, and is scheduled for completion on May 8, 2013. Mrs. Rask has been compliant with all of the conditions of probation. Since her probation began, she has resided with her husband, Larry Rask, in the same residence. Mrs. Rask has expressed understanding that she will need to continue making restitution payments once her probation has ended. She has paid the ordered $100 special assessment.

U. S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Mrs. Rask be continued on probation and her supervision terminate, as scheduled, on May 8, 2013, with the understanding that she will continue to make payments after supervision has ended.

The U.S. Attorney's Office concurs with the probation officer's recommendation.
